

„In-Country/In-Region Scholarship Programme“ South Africa

Call for Scholarship Applications 2022 at the University of Witwatersrand, African Centre for Migration and Displacement (ACMS)

Funded by the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ)

Application Closing Date at DAAD (for pre-selected candidates only): 15th June 2021

Programme Objectives

The programme aims at fostering strong, internationally oriented higher education systems in Sub-Saharan Africa with the capacity to contribute to sustainable development. To this end, scholarships are granted for development-related Master or doctoral studies for individuals who plan to pursue a career in teaching and / or research at a higher education institution in Sub-Saharan Africa.

By training future academic and professional leaders, the programme contributes to the following long-term impacts:

- Qualified professionals' involvement in the solution of development-related problems in Sub-Saharan Africa
- Graduates strengthening education and research in Sub-Saharan Africa
- Structural strengthening and regional networking of partner institutions and partner universities

To achieve these long-term impacts, the following outcomes have been formulated as programme objectives:

Programme objective 1: Graduates have qualified to take over responsible positions in their, or for their, region of origin

Programme objective 2: The participation of women and underprivileged groups is reinforced

Programme objective 3: Organizational, financial and personal capacities of partner institutions are strengthened

As part of the „In-Country/In-Region Scholarship Programme“ DAAD offers scholarships for PhD and Master studies. The programme is funded by the German Federal Ministry of Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) and aims at university staff in the first line, without neglecting the public sector demand of academically trained personnel.

The target group for scholarships are graduates and postgraduates from Sub-Saharan Africa (excluding South Africa) with a first academic degree if applying for a Master's programme, or with a Master's degree if applying for a doctoral programme who want to pursue Master's or PhD courses in another Sub-Saharan African country (In-Region scholarships are aimed at students who want to participate in a study programme in a country of their home region (here: Sub-Saharan Africa /outside their home country).

It has been agreed upon that DAAD cooperates with the University of the Witwatersrand, African Centre for Migration and Displacement (ACMS) by offering up to 4 In-Region scholarships for Masters studies and up to 5 In-Region scholarships for PhD studies for the intake 2022.

The awarding of scholarships will be subject to the provision of funds.

Application requirements

Applicants

- must have successfully completed generally a three-year university degree (Master candidates) or a two-year university degree (doctoral candidates) with above average results (at least: Second Class/Upper Division)
- must clearly show motivation and strong commitment
- must have thorough knowledge of the language of instruction
- must have generally completed their last university degree not more than 6 years ago at the time of application
- must be nationals or permanent resident of a Sub-Saharan African country (excluding South Africa)
- should generally be a) staff member of a public university, b) candidate considered for teaching or research staff recruitment, c) from the public sector and/or d) Alumni of the DAFI-programme

Female applicants and candidates from less privileged regions or groups are especially encouraged to participate in the programme.

Eligible fields

The In-Country/In-Region Scholarship Programme supports studies in subject areas with strong relevance to national development.

The scholarships at University of the Witwatersrand, African Centre for Migration and Displacement (ACMS) are available in the following fields:

- PhD in Migration and Displacement Studies
- Master in Migration and Displacement Studies

Place of tenure

University of the Witwatersrand, African Centre for Migration and Displacement (ACMS)

Duration and Commencement

Duration of the standard period of study and start date according to the agreement between the host institution and the DAAD:

- For the PhD programme, the duration is generally three years and is usually starting in February 2022
- For the Master programme, the duration is generally one year and is usually starting in February 2022.

Please note that the maximum duration of the scholarship is based on the time that is left until the scholarship holder has reached the regular period of studies in that programme; i.e., if you apply for a DAAD scholarship starting in your second year of studies of a three-year programme, the maximum duration of the scholarship will be two years.

The application process contains two steps. Please be aware of the two application deadlines.

First step:

Applicants must apply for their studies at University of the Witwatersrand, African Centre for Migration and Displacement (ACMS) using the contacts and the method that is prescribed by the institution. ACMS has set its own deadlines.

Additionally, once you submit your application to ACMS, please send a short notification to DAAD that you have applied with the subject "Your Surname_First name_University of the Witwatersrand, African Centre for Migration and Displacement (ACMS)" to the email address of the DAAD contact person given below.

Please note: In some countries in Sub-Saharan Africa, a document from the Qualifications Authority must be submitted for admission to the universities (e.g. from SAQA in South Africa). Please note that the application for these documents may take long and that it is the applicant's responsibility to get informed at an early stage in order to receive the documents from the respective authorities in time.

ACMS will screen, pre-select (according to DAAD selection criteria) and short-list the applicants. A detailed report consisting of the shortlisting procedure, the entire list of applicants, the ranked shortlist and the shortlisting panel members will also be availed to DAAD. The ranked shortlist will contain preferably triple (at least double) the number of scholarships that have been attributed to the institution.

DAAD reserves the right of final selection.

Second step:

ACMS will provide the shortlisted candidates with the link to the DAAD-Portal. Only the pre-selected candidates are asked to log into the DAAD portal, register themselves and submit an DAAD application. DAAD Deadline: 15th June 2021

Documents to be submitted (in either English or German):

- DAAD application form duly filled in (available in the DAAD-Portal)
- Hand signed curriculum vitae (please use the European specimen form at <http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu>), including a list of publications (if applicable).
- Recommendation letter by university teachers (Master 1, PhD 2)
- Letter of admission for the host university
- Certified copies of university degree certificates including transcripts
- Letter of motivation and a timetable (if applicable: mentioning the planned research stay in Germany, see "Additional benefits")
- Copy of the passport
- If applicable, information on the UNHCR registration as refugee

PhD candidates have to submit the following additional documents:

- Declaration of acceptance from the academic supervisor
- Detailed and precise PhD proposal, including detailed work and timetable (if applicable: mentioning the planned research stay in Germany, see “Additional benefits”)
- Abstract of the proposal on one page (please include name and title of proposal)

*Please note that in some cases not all fees and costs that are mentioned on the official fee structure of the host institution can be covered by DAAD in full, e.g. if the agreement with the funding organization prevents us from funding certain items in the fee structure or if items that are included in the fees are supposed to be covered through the individual scholarship benefits. DAAD will transfer the fees directly to the host institution.

The scholarship will be paid directly to the scholarship holder’s banking account. Further details will be announced after admission to the scholarship programme on the Letter of Award.

Additional benefits

DAAD In-Country/In-Region scholarship holders are also

- a) encouraged to apply for a research stay in Germany for 3 up to 6 months. Please note: The short-term research stay in Germany should preferably be announced in the application for the regular scholarship and can only be awarded if the necessary financial means are available.

The short-term research scholarship includes:

- a monthly scholarship payment for living costs
- health/accident/personal liability insurance
- a flat-rate travel allowance

b) invited to apply for different Summer Schools in Germany (four weeks)

All further details regarding additional benefits and the additional application processes will be provided after admission to the scholarship programme.

Please note that all short-listed applicants will be asked to participate in a multi-wave monitoring survey to gather data on different academic and career development aspects. Participation is voluntary.
