

In-Region Scholarship Programme South Africa

Call for Scholarship Applications 2021 at the University of Witwatersrand, African Centre for Migration and Displacement (ACMS)

Funded by the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ)

Application Closing Date at DAAD (for pre-selected candidates only):
June 2, 2020

Scholarships will be awarded subject to the provision of funds and to the conclusion of contract between the host institution and DAAD

Programme Objectives

The programme aims at fostering strong, internationally oriented higher education systems in Sub-Saharan Africa with the capacity to contribute to sustainable development. To this end, scholarships are granted for development-related Master or doctoral studies for individuals who plan to pursue a career in teaching and / or research at a higher education institution in Sub-Saharan Africa.

By training future academic and professional leaders, the programme contributes to the following long-term impacts:

- Qualified professionals' involvement in the solution of development-related problems in Sub-Saharan Africa
- Graduates strengthening education and research in Sub-Saharan Africa
- Structural strengthening and regional networking of partner institutions and partner universities

To achieve these long term impacts, the following outcomes have been formulated as programme objectives:

Programme objective 1: Graduates have qualified to take over responsible positions in their, or for their, region of origin

Programme objective 2: The participation of women and underprivileged groups is reinforced

Programme objective 3: Organizational, financial and personal capacities of partner institutions are strengthened

As part of the In-Region Scholarship Programme DAAD offers scholarships for PhD and Master studies. The programme is funded by the German Federal Ministry of Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) and aims at university staff in the first line, without neglecting the public sector demand of academically trained personnel.

The target group for scholarships are graduates and postgraduates from Sub-Saharan Africa with a first academic degree if applying for a Master's programme, or with a Master's degree if applying for a doctoral programme who want to pursue Master's or PhD courses. In-Region Scholarships are aimed at students who want to participate in a study programme in a country of their home region (here: Sub-Saharan Africa/outside their home country).

It has been agreed upon that DAAD cooperates with the University of the Witwatersrand, African Centre for Migration and Displacement (ACMS) by offering up to 4 In-Region scholarships for Masters studies and up to 5 In-Region scholarships for PhD studies for the intake 2021.

Scholarships will be awarded subject to the provision of funds and to the conclusion of contract between the host institution and DAAD.
